Invitation to ISCIII'07:

After two successful editions in Tunisia, i.e., ISCIII'03 and ISCIII'05, the Scientific Organizing Committee (SOC) of ISCIII'07 invites you to participate in this third edition in the coastal city of Agadir Morocco. While continuing to encourage high quality innovative papers, the SOC remains committed to facilitate encounters and exchanges among the top researchers in the field and rising stars. Indeed, the venue was chosen to enhance interaction between participants as well as give the events an appropriate setting. In fact, Agadir is a sister city to Miami, Florida!
